

A MAN

IS KNOWN BY THE COMPANY

HE KEEPS!

But it is equally true that he is treated very much according to the clothes he wears. This fact is what confers such importance on the art of dressing well.

JAMES M'KEAND,
MERCHANT TAILOR AND PROPRIETOR OF THE

S A G E
STORE,

fully aware of this state of things, now exhibits to his friends and the public, an assortment of Goods hitherto Unrivalled in this Market.

France, Belgium, England, Germany and America have contributed and combined to furnish the

BAGUE
CLOTHING STORE

with the choicest of their productions in

CLOTHES,

IN

CASSIMERES,

IN CASHMERMES.

Quantities in fabric, this collection passes all which have hitherto been worn and some styles which make their first entry; while here may be found the most desirable and elegant colors, particularly those approved by popular taste, such as emerald-green, rose-pink, and sand-colored, and various combinations of them, in present style in the fashioning world.

Warranted to Fit

To the Trade all Trimmings will be sold at a liberal discount. Clothiers to order, promptly.

In view of the numerous sales by auction prices will be so low as to ensure speedy sale of these goods.

An unusually large and elegant assortment

READY-MADE CLOTHING:

just purchased and latest styles, now coming, adapted to the season and selected with great care, which will be sold at slight advance from cost. Those who call first, will have the first selection.

ELGIN SPRINGS.

The Elgin Spring House is now open for the reception of visitors. The Proprietor having made arrangements in his house, and having full confidence of giving satisfaction to all. Those who wish for information as to the Medicinal qualities of the Springs, I am allowed to refer to Doctors C. L. Allen, Wm. P. Russel, Middlebury; A. Brinsford and P. Mayfield, Vergennes; and Jonathan Crane, Ferrisburgh.

These Springs are situated about three miles from the City of Vergennes, Vermont, in the most delightful part of Lake Champlain Valley; midway between the Green Mountains and the Lake, affording to visitors of pleasure a great variety of rare sports "by field or forest." And to those who would like to stay and quiet so much desired.

He has also a very accommodation for Plunge, Shower and Warm BATHS, and hopes by continued attention to secure a proper portion of patronage.
